Programme of work

2. The draft programme of work (see annex) has been prepared bearing in mind paragraph (b) of rule 99 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, Assembly decision 71/538 on the programme of work of the Third Committee for the seventy-second session, the agenda of the seventy-second session (A/72/150), the first report of the General Committee on the organization of the seventy-second regular session of the General Assembly, adoption of the agenda and allocation of items (A/72/250), relevant resolutions and decisions adopted by the Assembly on the rationalization of its work and that of the Third Committee, as well as past experience in the utilization of conference services.

Question time and interactive dialogues

3. In accordance with the established practice of the Committee and pursuant to paragraphs 3 (c) and (d) of the annex to General Assembly resolution 58/316 on further measures for the revitalization of the work of the General Assembly, immediately following the introduction of reports by executive heads and senior members of the Secretariat at the beginning of each debate, interactive dialogues and a "question time" will be held with heads of departments and offices, representatives of the Secretary-General, special rapporteurs and other special mechanisms as part of the formal proceedings of the Committee. Delegations are invited to participate actively in these dialogues with questions and unscripted comments. The general discussion of each agenda item or cluster of agenda items is to follow the question time.

List of speakers

4. The list of speakers for the general discussion on agenda items allocated to the Committee will be opened on Monday, 18 September 2017.

5. Requests for inscription from permanent missions to the United Nations and observer States for the general discussion on agenda items allocated to the Committee should be sent electronically through the eSpeakers platform. An automated email acknowledgement will be sent within one hour of receipt of the request. Requests for inscription from intergovernmental organizations, entities that have observer status with the General Assembly and entities of the United Nations system should be sent by email to the Secretariat.

Statements

6. Statements made during the general discussion under each agenda item or cluster of agenda items will be limited to 5 minutes for individual delegations and to 12 minutes for statements made on behalf of a group of delegations.

7. Under item 73 of the agenda, "Promotion and protection of human rights", delegations may make one statement under sub-item (a) and one statement under sub-item (d), which are to be discussed sequentially. Under sub-items (b) and (c), which are to be considered jointly, delegations may make two separate statements, one under sub-item (b) and one under sub-item (c). In the interest of time, however, delegations are encouraged to make only one statement under sub-items (a) and (d), and one statement under sub-items (b) and (c), within the established time limit.

8. Under item 71, "Elimination of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance", and item 72, "Right of peoples to self-determination", which are to be discussed jointly, delegations may also make two separate statements. Similarly, in the interest of time, delegations are again encouraged to make only one statement within the established time limit.

9. In accordance with previous decisions of the General Assembly, delegations should exercise their right of reply at the end of the day whenever two meetings have been scheduled for the consideration of the relevant agenda item on that day, or at the conclusion of the consideration of the item, if that is sooner. The first statement should be limited to five minutes and the second, if any, to three minutes.

List of documents

10. Attention is drawn to the addendum to the present note (to be issued as A/C.3/72/L.1/Add.1), which will list the documentation submitted under each agenda item expected to be allocated to the Committee.

Conference facilities and meeting arrangements

11. Unless otherwise specified, official meetings of the Committee will be held from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m. in Conference Room 1 (Conference Building). The General Assembly has stressed that a punctual start of meetings is critical to the efficient utilization of services allocated to the intergovernmental bodies of the United Nations. In accordance with past practice, it is proposed that rule 108 of the Committee's rules of procedure be waived with respect to the quorum needed to declare a meeting open.

Co-sponsorship of draft resolutions and proposals

12. The initiation and co-sponsorship of draft resolutions and other proposals will be undertaken electronically through the eSponsorship application without prejudice
